

Privacy Statement for Data Collected Online

At KenputerGuru, we value visitors to our Web site and take your personal privacy seriously. We have posted this privacy statement to inform you of our practices for handling the data the KenputerGuru collects online via this Web site. The KenputerGuru Web site was created in the United States and does not necessarily comply with laws of any other country, so please review this statement before submitting any data through this site.

Site Security

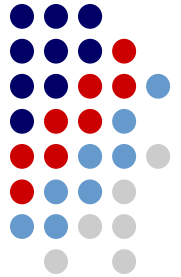

KenputerGuru operates data networks protected by industry standard firewall and password protection systems. Our security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and updated as necessary. This is the most current version of the KenputerGuru Privacy Statement for Data Collected Online. This statement applies unless otherwise stated.

Collecting Site Visitor Information

When you visit the KenputerGuru Web site or click on links within the site, we collect information that has no personal reference to or connection with you (impersonal information). By itself, this information does not identify you and may include the following:

- The Uniform Resource Locator (URL) address (the address of a file or resource accessible on the Internet) of the Web site that you left to visit the KenputerGuru Web site
- The Web pages you visit on the KenputerGuru Web site
- The browser application you used to come to the KenputerGuru Web site
- Your Internet Protocol (IP) address (a number that identifies each sender or receiver of information that is sent in packets across the Internet)
- Any search terms you enter on the KenputerGuru Web site

By using the KenputerGuru Web site, you consent to the collection and use of this information by KenputerGuru. We use the impersonal information we gather to help us do things such as improve our understanding of how visitors use the KenputerGuru Web site, measure interest in various pages, improve the site's content and usability, monitor the level of activity on the site, and run the site more efficiently. We may also use such information as a way to gather broad demographic information, to enhance users' experience on the KenputerGuru Web site, or to better prepare future content based on the interests of our users.

We do not connect the impersonal information we collect on the KenputerGuru Web site with other types of information that can be associated with a specific individual.

Use of Cookies and Web Beacons

A cookie is a small text file containing information that a web site transfers to your computer for recordkeeping purposes. We use cookies to analyze traffic patterns on our site.

A web beacon is a transparent, 1-pixel image in .gif format that helps us collect data about visitors viewing a web page -- for example, to count the number of visitors to a page or to deliver a cookie to visitors' browsers when they view that page. We may use web beacons on this site from time to time for these and other purposes.

Cookies and web beacons cannot give us access to your computer or to information beyond what you provide to us. Disabling cookies in your browser will prevent us from using cookies or web beacons to collect data about your visit to our site, but you will still be able to view the publicly available information on our web site. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. Consult your browser's manual or online help if you want information on restricting or disabling the browser's handling of cookies. If you are using a shared computer and you have cookies turned on, be sure to log off when you finish.

Collecting Your Personal Information

Sometimes we ask you for information that personally identifies you (personal information) so that you can perform actions on the KenputerGuru Web site (such as accessing certain parts of the site, contacting us, or requesting information). This personal information may include name, email address, postal address, country, and telephone number, and may also include additional information when necessary—for example, if you choose to take actions like these:

- access free online support chat
- contact us
- volunteer to complete surveys or participate in polls
- enter a promotional program or activity
- request newsletters, promotional emails, printed materials, etc.
- utilize online help desk support

Choice Regarding Collection of Personal Information

You may choose not to provide us with personal information, in which case you may not be able to perform actions on the KenputerGuru Web site like those described above.

How We Use and Share Information Collected

We do not connect the personal and impersonal information we collect on the KenputerGuru Web site.

We may use personal information collected from you to—among other things—respond to you, contact you, or provide you with information or services. When you give us your personal information online, we will not sell, trade, or rent this personal information to third parties or share it without your consent, other than in the situations described above. KenputerGuru does not intend to reveal personal information except as outlined in this privacy statement. Your personal information may be stored and processed in the United States only.

Your Ability to Access and Update Personal Information

If you have questions about the personal information you have submitted via the KenputerGuru Web site, please contact info@kenputerguru.com.

Your Consent

By using this site, you consent to the collection and use of this information by KenputerGuru. If there are any changes to the terms of this statement, the revised version will be posted on this Web page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

Children's Privacy

Protecting children's privacy is extremely important to us. The KenputerGuru Web site is not intended for the use of or designed to attract the attention of children, and we do not collect personal information from anyone we know to be under age 13 without requesting parental consent.

Links to Other Sites

Links to third-party Web sites may appear within the KenputerGuru Web site for your convenience and information. Using these links will cause you to access Web sites that are not part of the KenputerGuru Web site, even though they may contain KenputerGuru logos, information, etc. KenputerGuru is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of other sites. We suggest that you carefully review the privacy policies of each site you visit.
